Women's Health Center Locates to South Coast Medical Center

April 9, 2007 —The “Women’s Health Center of South Orange County”, formerly located in Mission Viejo, has located to South Coast Medical Center in Laguna Beach.

“The Women’s Health Center offers a variety of services for women including general and complex gynecologic services,” said Dr. Red Alinsod, Urogynecologist of the Center.

“Our unique services include treatment of abnormal vaginal/menstrual bleeding, urogynecology and reconstructive pelvic surgery, incontinence diagnosis and treatments, and expertise in pelvic prolapse management and aesthetic vaginal repairs,” he added.

In addition, the Women’s Health Center offers aesthetic vaginal surgery, which includes comprehensive vaginal rejuvenation, labiaplasty and vaginoplasty and hymen repair.

Dr. Elizabeth Lyster, a principal of the center who works on the front lines with many patients, provides general gynecological services as well as specialized services and therapies related to menopause, including providing customized prescriptions of bio-identical hormone replacement therapy.

The Center also offers aesthetic laser procedures provided by 20-year Nurse Practitioner JoAnn Lorbiecki. Services including fractional non-ablative skin rejuvenations, fractional infrared skin tightenings, rejuvelux fotofacials and more.
